1991

Level II grants support ongoing arts programming of organizations and individuals who have received grants at least four times in the past. Eligible applicants are mailed applications directly. Deadline is Oct. 1, 1991.

For information on where to pick up Level I applications, on times and locations of the workshops or for any other application assistance, call 688-5399 and ask for Robin Parker, Lance Linares or Linda Fridy.

MUSEUM LOOKING FOR VOLUNTEERS

The Capitola Historical Museum is searching for local history enthusiasts to volunteer Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays.

Shifts can be arranged on these days, and duties consist of opening or closing the museum and greeting guests.

A minimum commitment of two-and-a-half hours per month are required for volunteers. Interested persons may call the Museum at 464-0322.

ALZHEIMER'S CARE CENTER HOLDS FUND DRIVE

"Apples for Alzheimer's Care" is taking orders for bushels of apples to help local people who suffer from Alzheimer's disease.

Local businesses and individuals can help by purchasing a bushel of fresh, locally-grown apples for $100, or you can also lend a hand by volunteering. For further information, contact Apples for Alzheimer's Care at 688-8840.

"Cruises de Palo III" by Carmen Leon at the Art League

MOUNTAIN COMMUNITY THEATER PERFORMS "FAME"

MTC will present "Fame," through September, at Park Hall in Ben Lomond. Performances are Friday and Saturday at 8pm, and Sunday matinees start at 2pm on September 15, 22 and 29.

"Fame" is the annual MCT Youth Production for the popular community theater. MCT provides adult supervision to an otherwise teenage production team who experience virtually every aspect of mounting a theatrical production.

Tickets are available in advance from Ben Lomond Video and the Santa Cruz Civic Box Office; $7 general, $5 seniors and $4 children. Contact MCT, at 336-2278, for details.

WATERCOLOR EXHIBIT AT ZANOTTO'S

Capitola artist, Bob Newick will be exhibiting his watercolors at Zanotto's Restaurant during the month of September.

The restaurant is located at 5600 Scotts Valley Drive, in Scotts Valley. Contact the restaurant at 438-0503 for details.

TRAINING FOR LITERACY VOLUNTEERS OFFERED

September classes are being offered by Literacy Volunteers of America in Watsonville.

Evening classes will be held September 9th to the 12th, and day classes will be held September 23 to 25.

Tutors will be matched with waiting learners. For more information, call 728-6003.

ART LEAGUE ANNOUNCES TWO EVENTS

The Santa Cruz Art League has announced its next juried exhibition, The Monterey Bay Landscape. The exhibition will run from October 29 to December 7 in the League's main gallery.

Original two- and three-dimensional work, completed within the past two years, will be juried by Richard Mayhew, professor of art at Penn State University, currently teaching at UCSC. Slides of work are due at the League on, or before, September 3. For entry forms, please send an SASE to: Santa Cruz Art League, 526 Broadway, Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

The Art League is also hosting "Simple Places, Sacred Spaces and Shrines"; a multimedia exhibition including sculpture, assemblage, drawing, photography and more; at the Art League from now until September 14. Hours are Tuesday through Saturday, 11am to 5pm, and Sunday 12 to 4pm.

HEALTH SERVICES ANNOUNCES FREE CLINICS

Beginning this month, the Santa Cruz County Health Services Agency, Santa Cruz Health Center, located at 1080 Emeline Avenue, and Watsonville Health Center, located at 9 Crestview Drive, will provide free health checkups for low income children and youth.

The clinic times will be as follows: In Santa Cruz, Fridays from 8am to noon, for children of all ages. In Watsonville, Mondays and Thursdays from 8am to noon.

For more information, contact the Santa Cruz Health Center at 425-2551 or the Watsonville Health Center at 761-4030.

SHARED HOUSING PROGRAM FOR SENIORS

Senior Network Services has announced a shared housing program for senior citizens.

The program is designed to bring together people with homes and those seeking affordable housing. Matches range from low-rent to no-rent work exchanges.

Seniors are matched with people of all ages and there is no fee for the program.

For information, call Monday through Friday from 9am to 12:30pm, 462-6788 in Santa Cruz or 728-1751 in Watsonville.

LOCAL ARTISTS DISPLAY WORK AT COUNTY BUILDING

Now through September 20, local artists will display work in a variety of media at the Santa Cruz County Building.

Work ranges from photo essays to pastels, water colors and metal working.

The exhibit is sponsored by the Santa Cruz County Arts Commission and the Cultural Council of Santa Cruz County. The building is open Monday-Friday, 8am to 5pm. Artwork will be displayed on all floors, throughout the building.

SANTA CRUZ AIDS PROJECT TO BEGIN TRAINING

The Santa Cruz AIDS Project is now filling its fall trainings for volunteers interested in working on a support team for HIV disease, or for those interested in educating the community about the epidemic.

Trainings will be given for the Buddy and Practical Support Programs, as well as for Project First Hand and the Speaker's Bureau.

SCAP offers orientation, interviews, and training sessions. For information, call Jean Wolff, Volunteer Coordinator, or Ruth Mota at 427-3900.

PAID ADVERTISEMENT